

City of Cambridge

IN CITY COUNCIL

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

JANUARY 30, 1989

RESOLVED:

That a suitable resolution be drawn up for Horace Works as he retires after 30 years of work in the U. S. Postal Service.

WJS #13 1/30/89
RESOLUTION

~~WHEREAS : Horace Works is a life - long resident of the Boston area ; and~~

✓ ~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ ^{a native of Boston} is completing his 30th year of unselfish service to the United States Postal Service for the District of Massachusetts ; 16 of which he has served in the City Of Cambridge ; and

✓ ~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ has for the period of the past several years served as the Supervisor within the Cambridge A Post Office for parcel post, collections and deliveries ; and

✓ ~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ prior to that served as a letter carrier adhering to the post man's motto etched on the front of the New York City General Mail Facility : " neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these carriers from swift completion of their appointed rounds " ; and

✓ ~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ is a man whose day would not be complete if he did not bring some sunshine onto a distraut customer's face having difficulties with the mail delivery systems ; and

✓ ~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ has developed a reputation throughout the U.S. Postal Service as a man whose name became his deeds , " Works" - not just figurately but literally . It would not be uncommon for Mr. Works to break from his regular cycle of responsibilities if only to help a customer on a problem or concern that was completely out of his jurisdiction ; and

~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ is not only a man committed to tirelessly working for our constituents to insure prompt, efficient and non - problematic mail delivery , But he is also a man who adheres to the old Biblical motto : " Never separate yourself from the community " through being involved in church and community work in both his home city of Medford and in Boston ; and

~~WHEREAS : Horace Works~~ is a man that both colleagues and customers could easily come to when the chips were down on a weary day and go away a lot better. In many ways he was like a father to many of the young people working in the family of letter carriers in Cambridge ; and

~~WHEREAS : This coming February 3rd will mark Mr. Work's 30th year of service as a career employee for the United States Postal Service , and , his retirement from serving the people of this great city ; Now Therefore Be It~~

~~RESOLVED : That this City Council express it's profound gratitude for the achievements and service of Mr. Works as an administrator of our city's Post Office ; and furthermore Be it~~

~~RESOLVED : That this City Council wish Mr. Works, his wife, Janice , and his entire family many years of happiness, good health and sucess,~~

Resolved: that the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitable engraved copy of this resolution to Horace on behalf of the entire City Council.

City of Cambridge

COUNCILLOR WALTER J. SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

13.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 30, 1989

- WHEREAS: Horace Works, a native of Boston, is completing his 30th year of unselfish service to the United States Postal Service for the District of Massachusetts; 16 of which he has served in the City of Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: Horace has for the period of the past several years served as the Supervisor within the Cambridge A Post Office for parcel post, collections and deliveries; and
- WHEREAS: Horace, prior to that served as a letter carrier, adhering the postman's motto etched on the front of the New York City General Mail Facility: "Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these carriers from swift completion of their appointed rounds"; and
- WHEREAS: Horace has developed a reputation throughout the U.S. Postal Service as a man whose name became his deeds, "Works"-not just figuratively, but literally; it would not be uncommon for Mr. Works to break from his regular cycle of responsibilities if only to help a customer on a problem or concern that was completely out of his jurisdiction; and
- WHEREAS: Horace is not only a man committed to tirelessly working for our constituents to ensure prompt, efficient and non-problematic mail delivery, but he is also a man who adheres to the old Biblical motto: "Never separate yourself from the community" through being involved in church and community work in both his home city of Medford and Boston; and
- WHEREAS: This coming February 3rd will mark Mr. Work's 30th year of service as a career employee for the United States Postal Service, and, his retirement from serving the people of this great city; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council express its profound gratitude for the achievements and service of Mr. Works as an administrator of our city's Post Office; and to further extend every good wish to Horace, his wife, Janice and his entire family many years of happiness, good health and success; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Horace on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council January 30, 1989.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of 9 members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy,

Joseph E. Connarton

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

Order #13

C.W.J. Sullivan, re: resolutions on the retirement of Horace Works after 30 years with the U.S. Postal Service.

In City Council,

January 30, 1989

1-30-89

Order Adopted

9-0-0-0.