In City Council,
March 2, 1964.

WHEREAS:-

A communication was received from His Honor the Mayor on February 17, 1964, pursuant to City Council orders adopted in the year 1963, transmitting the names of a Citizens' Committee for the renewal of the so-called Wellington-Harrington neighborhood, and

WHEREAS:-

The list of names submitted by His Honor the Mayor represents a good cross section of the residents of that area including, as it does, the names of religious leaders of all faiths and individuals who have demonstrated a deep interest in the community problems which are involved in the renewal of that area, and

WHEREAS:-

The committee appointed by His Honor the Mayor has already met to seek solutions to the problems posed by Urban Renewal in order that they might present their findings to all municipal agencies involved and thus insure that the rights of all individuals will be protected, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That His Honor the Mayor be and hereby is congratulated by the membership of this City Council for establishing this Citizens' Committee in the Wellington-Harrington neighborhood thus providing a precedent for the future conduct of renewal activity in Cambridge.
