Gravel Walk on Waterhouse Street

Sept. 14, 1870

The undersigned begs leave to represent to the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Cambridge, that the lawn in front of his house, in Waterhouse Street, has been for many years, an object of care and interest with him, and instead of being an inconvenience in any respect to the community, it has been regarded as an ornament gratifying to the public taste. He therefore asks that the petition of Dr. H. P. Walcott in relation to a gravel walk on the Southern side of Waterhouse Street may not be considered as including the space, between Concord Avenue and Garden Street, bordering on his estate.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. Hodges.

The Standing Committee on Roads & Bridges to whom was referred the Petition of H. P. Walcott & others for a gravel sidewalk on the northerly side of Waterhouse Street; together with the remonstrance of R. M. Hodges against the same, would respectfully Report that they find the sidewalk referred to entirely covered with grass & much too wide, the few small trees & line of numerous posts, greatly encroaching upon the street, in view of which, your Committee recommend the adoption of the following order.

For the Committee,

James H. Sparrow
