An Irish Prayer

May those who love us, love us;
and those who don't love us,
may God turn their hearts;
and if He doesn't turn their hearts,
may he turn their ankles
so we'll know them by their limping.

An Irish Poem

GALLAGHER'S FIELD

We used to swim
at Gallagher's Field, where the bottom
was almost bare,
of the river and of the swimmers who swam when the sun
and the Summer
were there;
and I try to remember,
whenever I can,
that I cannot remember a care.

By William Brendan McPhillips who lived in Ballaghaderreen, Ireland.

Irish Blessing

May the road rise up to meet you,
May the wind be ever at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
And the rain fall softly on your fields And until we meet again, May God hold you in the hollow of his hand

An Olde Irish Wish

May the raindrops fall lightly on your brow
May the soft winds freshen your spirit
May the sunshine brighten your heart
May the burdens of the day rest lightly upon you

And may God enfold you in the mantle of His love.
