Resolve "Laid on the table until the next meeting"

In Board of Aldermen

City of Cambridge.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

April 2nd, 1895.

Whereas:

The last years City Council by a resolve passed December 18, 1894, placed upon record its opinion that it is expedient that the contemplated new bridge over Charles River from Charles-town district to Boston proper should be constructed without a draw, and

Whereas:

It appears to the present City Council that the construction of a bridge without a draw across the Charles River, almost at its entrance, would be detrimental to the welfare of the City of Cambridge and very injuriously affect its business interests, it is therefore

Resolved:

That in the judgment of the City Council of the City of Cambridge, it is highly important that the said bridge should be constructed with a suitable draw with a clear opening of at least thirty-six feet for the passage of vessels.
