Boston, June 4, 1894.

The City Clerk of the City of Cambridge,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Sir:--

We are in receipt of the notice dated May 22, 1894 to the effect that a hearing will be given on the question of laying out Crescent St. as a public way, on Tuesday, June 5, 1894, at 8.30.

Acting on behalf of Mrs. E. F. L. Dunklee, who is the owner of property abutting on Crescent St., and who is the owner in fee of a portion of the land that is to be taken, we desire to state her objections to such taking.

If Crescent Street is laid out as a public way it will increase the liability of the abutters as far as injuries to passers by are concerned; it will bring them under the onerous regulations that most cities impose upon the use of streets as far as building and opening are concerned; it will impose burdens in regard to sidewalks and clearing of snow, and if land is taken, it will cut short a lot which has value in its present size, but which, if shortened, would be seriously depreciated.

It is impossible for either Mrs. Dunklee or for us to be present at this hearing, and we wish to enter our protest, and rea-

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

May 22nd, 1894.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Board, the public necessity and convenience require that Crescent street, a private way so-called, between Oxford street and Sacramento street, should be taken and laid out as a public way of the City of Cambridge, and that the grade thereof should be established, - said Crescent street being bounded and described as follows, viz:-

Beginning at a point in the easterly line of Oxford street at its intersection with the northerly line of Crescent street: thence running easterly along said northerly line of Crescent street, four hundred and eighty-four and fifty-two hundredths (484.52) feet to the tangent point of a curve: thence running in a generally southeasterly direction along said curve of ninety-one and eighty-six hundredths (91.86) feet radius, one hundred and thirty-seven and fifteen hundredths (137.15) feet to the other tangent point of said curve: thence southerly along the easterly line of Crescent street sixty and sixty hundredths (60.60) feet to the northerly line of Sacramento street: thence running westerly along the northerly line of Sacramento street thirty (30) feet: thence running northerly and westerly parallel to and thirty (30) feet distant from the before described easterly and northerly lines of Crescent street six hundred and thirty-eight and seventeen hundredths (638.17) feet to the easterly line of Oxford street: thence running northerly along the easterly line of Oxford street thirty and two hundredths (30.02) feet to the point of beginning. Containing about nineteen thousand eight hundred and six and six tenths (19,806.6) square feet, more or less.

Said Crescent street is shown upon a plan drawn by W. A. Mason and Son, Surveyors, dated April 19, 1894, and on file in the office of the City Engineer, City Hall, Cambridge:

it is therefore hereby

Ordered,

That due notice be given to the owners of lands abutting on said ~~street~~ ^{Crescent} street, as hereinbefore described, and all other persons interested, by a delivery of a copy of this order of notice in the manner prescribed by law and by publication in the newspaper called the Cambridge Press, that this Board intends to lay out the street before mentioned, by taking a portion of their land and laying out the same as a public street, and that Tuesday, the 5th, day of June next, at eight 1/2 o'clock P. M., is assigned as the time for hearing any objections which may be made thereto.

Sent down for concurrence.
