WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has benefited from five years of having Chief Ranger Jean Rogers at the Fresh Pond Reservation helping to initiate, develop and enhance programs of information, education and law enforcement about land and water conservation; and

WHEREAS: Increased citizen participation in maintaining and improving Fresh Pond is evident by the noted rise in the number of volunteer groups working to save, rake and compost natural materials, mulch trees, define hillside trails, refine erosion control measures, side up paths, and learn about the cumulative effects of waste; and

WHEREAS: Jean has worked to develop relationships with numerous schools and agencies over the past five years, maintaining ongoing relationships with a number of them including the Haggerty School, Buckingham Browne & Nichols, Graham & Parks, Harrington, Longfellow, Morse, Shady Hill, Friends School, French Language School, Fayerweather School, Boston University, Boston College, Harvard University, MIT and a special intergenerational collaboration with Habitat for Humanity, Summerbridge and the Mayor's Summer Employment Program; and

WHEREAS: Jean has an ongoing relationship with the Haggerty School, including the use of the Reservation as a field lab to study curriculum related to topics such as water, soil, weather and living things, and has worked on a "Weather, soil, living things" project where she creates a field experience for the students; and

WHEREAS: Jean has created portable displays for the Cambridge Public Schools, continuous flyers for the Reservation and in depth newsletters of seasonal and environmental interest for the public; and

WHEREAS: Jean has helped to institute International Migratory Bird Day, as well as helping to expand the Water Department's annual Water Week to include tours, open houses, and video displays all under Jean's coordination; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City of Cambridge offers Chief Ranger Jean Rogers its congratulations and its sincerest thanks for all of the work she has done to improve the quality of life in Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Chief Ranger Jean Rogers on behalf of the entire City Council.
