

Cambridge, June 27. 1871.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned, respectfully ~~prays~~ in behalf of the Right-Reverence John J. Williams, Bishop of Boston, respectfully represents that the sum awarded for land taken from the Catholic Cemetery to widen Spruce Street is inadequate, being the sum of $51.96 awarded for 337 feet of land and the removal of 254 feet of fence, wherefore he prays that such further sum may be awarded as, upon examination of the premises, shall seem just and proper.
