

City of Cambridge

Mayor Vellucci

IN CITY COUNCIL

August 3, 1970.

WHEREAS:

The City of Cambridge is justifiably proud of the achievements of its young people in the school room, on the athletic field, in the work shops and special programs in the pursuit of further education and training to enable them to become better citizens of this community, and

WHEREAS:

The vast majority of our young citizens are blessed with a desire for excellence, a thirst for knowledge, a deep interest in civic affairs and a better life for their fellow man, and

WHEREAS:

There are many social agencies in the City of Cambridge who have provided outstanding leadership and direction for the youth of our community, and

WHEREAS:

It is important that these agencies and the youth of the City of Cambridge receive the recognition that they so richly deserve, therefore be it

RESOLVED:

That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby proclaim the week of August 17th to August 23rd as

YOUTH WEEK IN CAMBRIDGE

and urge that all citizens during this week reflect upon the many accomplishments of our youth and their contribution to the civic life of the City of Cambridge,

ALFRED E. VELLUCCI
MAYOR.
