

City of Cambridge

33.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 24, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: There are many efforts in the City aimed at placing young people into jobs in the City; and

WHEREAS: In spite of these many fine efforts there are still a great number of young people who are looking for work, with numbers indicating that 250 Cambridge young people have expressed an interest in work and still do not have positions; and

WHEREAS: An investment in young people will address their needs as well as those of the community; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to talk to city departments heads to investigate the possibility of city departments hiring a young person for the summer particularly in departments where internships involving work on computers, planning, bookkeeping could be arranged; and be it further

RESOLVED: That such positions could be tied in with the city's youth employment office; and be it further

RESOLVED: That a response to this resolution be requested within one weeks time if it were to have any effect on the situation this summer.

In City Council June 24, 1991.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of eight members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy; Joseph E. Connarton

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

Whereas there are many efforts in the city aimed at placing young people into jobs in the city;

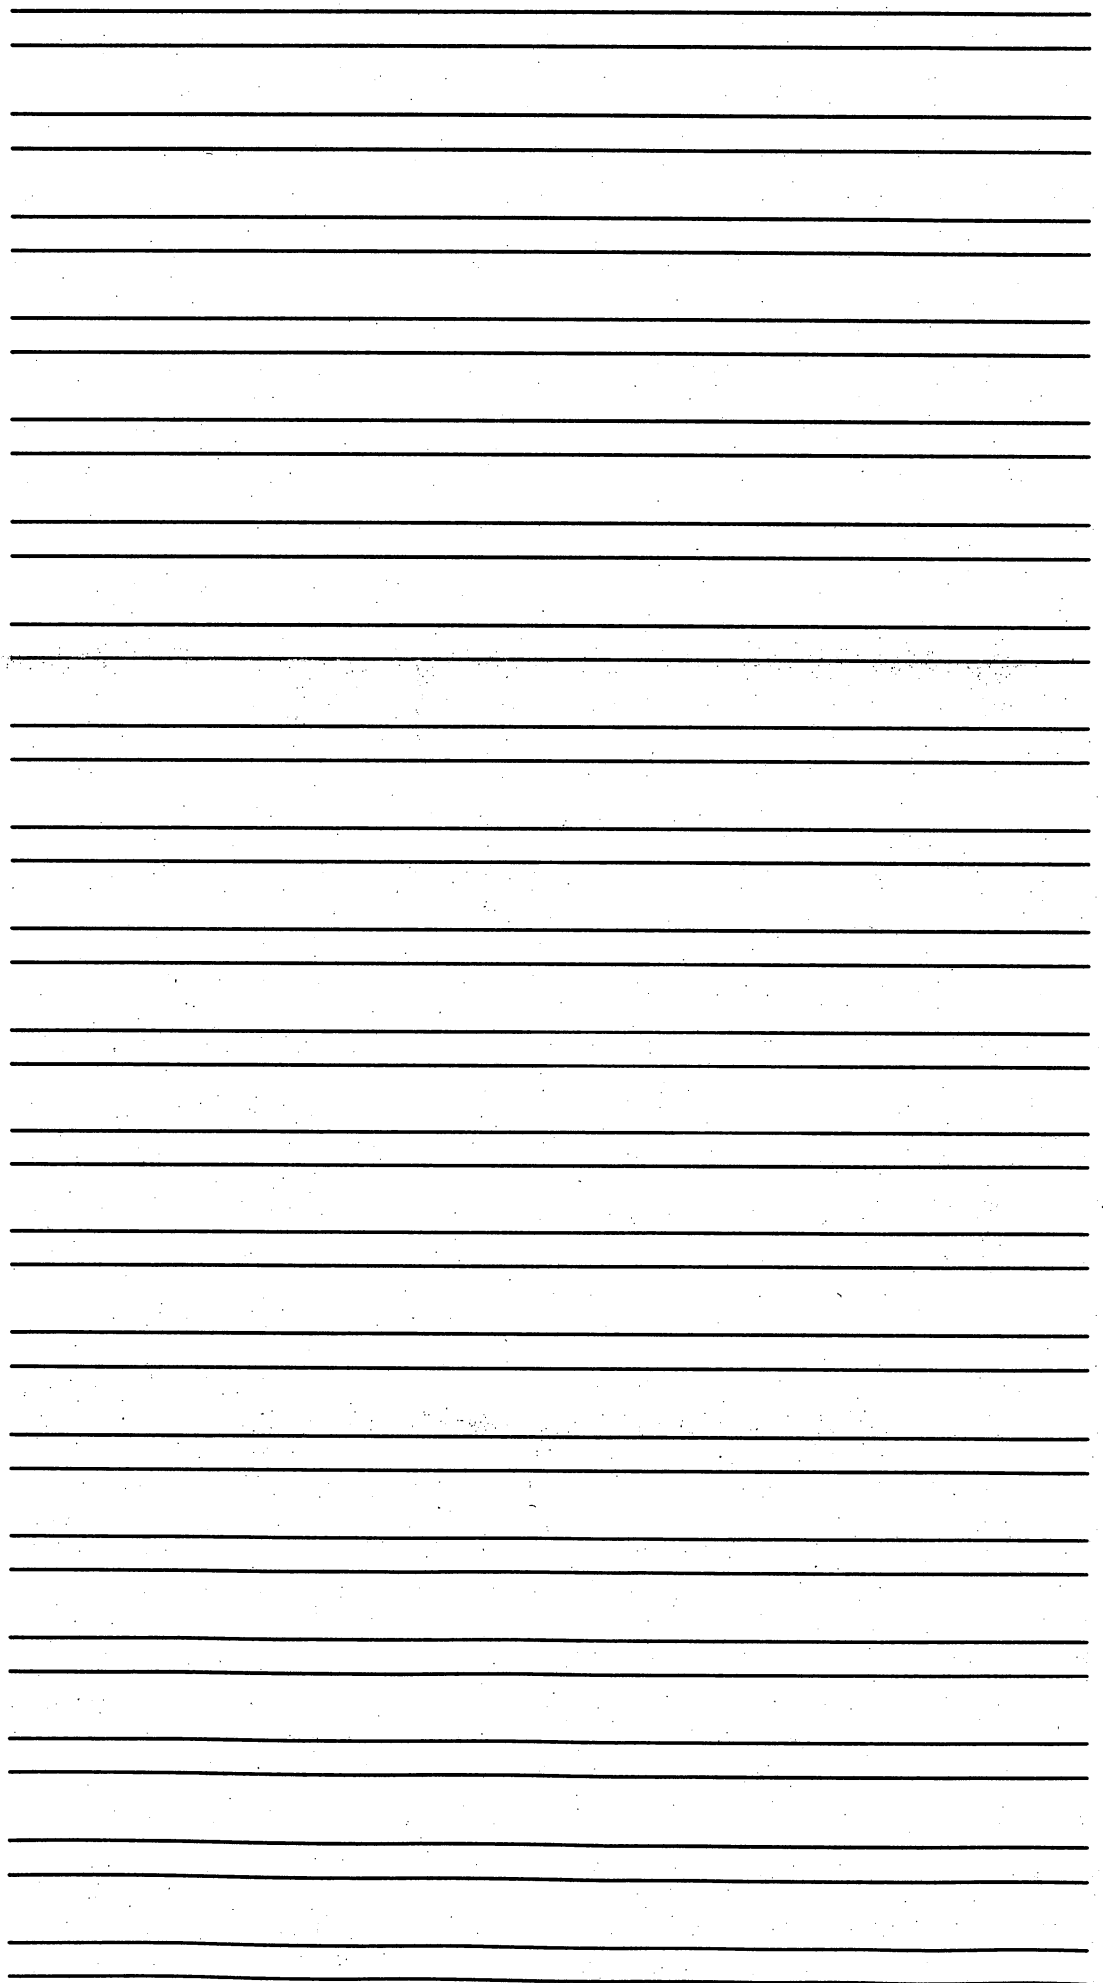

Whereas in spite of these many fine efforts there are still a great number of young people who are looking for work, with numbers indicating that 250 Cambridge young people have expressed an interest in work and still do not have positions;

Whereas an investment in young people will address their needs as well as those of the community;

Therefore be it resolved that the City Manager bein and is hereby requested to talk to city department heads to investigate the possibility of city departments hiring a young person for the summer particularly in departments where internships involving work on computers, planning, bookkeeping could be arranged;

And be it further resolved that such positions could be tied in with the city's youth employment office

And be it further resolved that a repspnse to this resolution be requested within one weeks time if it were to have any effect on the situation this summer.

City of Cambridge

33.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 24, 1991

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: There are many efforts in the City aimed at placing young people into jobs in the City; and

WHEREAS: In spite of these many fine efforts there are still a great number of young people who are looking for work, with numbers indicating that 250 Cambridge young people have expressed an interest in work and still do not have positions; and

WHEREAS: An investment in young people will address their needs as well as those of the community; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to talk to city departments heads to investigate the possibility of city departments hiring a young person for the summer particularly in departments where internships involving work on computers, planning, bookkeeping could be arranged; and be it further

RESOLVED: That such positions could be tied in with the city's youth employment office; and be it further

RESOLVED: That a response to this resolution be requested within one weeks time if it were to have any effect on the situation this summer.

JUN. 24 1991

City Council

Adopted by the affirmative vote

of 9 members

Joseph E. Conner City Clerk

Order # 33

CONSENT

F-403

Councillor Myers re: internships for summer employment for youths.

In City Council,

June 24, 1991

Order adapted