Subject: Awaiting Report #18

Date: June 10, 1988

In response to Order #18, we are studying the provisions of the Residence C zoning district with a view toward recommending changes that would create further incentives for affordable housing construction. As indicated in our report of May 16, 1988, the Residence C district housing incentive provision as currently drafted is not achieving the desired objective. We expect that our review can be completed and a report submitted to the City Council in early September.
