

City of Cambridge

16.

IN CITY COUNCIL
May 13, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: The people of Cambridge and their City Council support the goals of hospice care which are to help the terminally ill person live as fully as possible, and to provide relief from physical pain and emotional suffering; and
- WHEREAS: Chilton House, a program of Hospice of Cambridge, at 65-67 Chilton Street, will be the first residential hospice in Massachusetts, providing an innovative and humane option for those people who can no longer remain at home, or no longer have a home; and
- WHEREAS: Chilton House will offer a wide range of medical, psycho-social, and spiritual services to its five residents and will stand as a model to our community of thoughtful and sensitive treatment of the terminally ill; and
- WHEREAS: On Wednesday, May 15, Visiting Nurse Affiliates of Cambridge is holding its 87th Annual Meeting and Capital Campaign Kick-off for Chilton House with honored guests Lieutenant Governor Paul Cellucci and State Representative Peter Vellucci, at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council express its great respect for the goals of the Chilton House Hospice and its confidence that Cambridge residents will view the presence of this vital service in our community as an opportunity to give their time and energy in a kind and gentle cause; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Chilton House on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council May 13, 1991.
Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton
City Clerk

CITY COUNCIL ORDER
VICE MAYOR REEVES

MAY 9, 1991

C/14

Chilton House Hospice Campaign Kick-off

WHEREAS: The people of Cambridge and their City Council support the goals of hospice care which are to help the terminally ill person live as fully as possible, and to provide relief from physical pain and emotional suffering, and

WHEREAS: Chilton House, a program of Hospice of Cambridge, at 65-67 Chilton Street, will be the first residential hospice in Massachusetts, providing an innovative and humane option for those people who can no longer remain at home, or no longer have a home, and

WHEREAS: Chilton House will offer a wide range of medical, psycho-social, and spiritual services to its five resident and will stand as a model to our community of thoughtful and sensitive treatment of the terminally ill, and

WHEREAS: On Wednesday, May 15, Visiting Nurse Affiliates of Cambridge is holding its 87th Annual Meeting and Capital Campaign Kick-off for Chilton House ~~at~~ Lieutenant Governor Paul Cellucci, State Representative, Pete Vellucci, at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council express its great respect for the goals of the Chilton House Hospice and its confidence that Cambridge residents will view the presence of this vital service in our community as an opportunity to give their time and energy in a kind and gentle cause, ~~and be it further~~

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation on May 15, 1991.

(In the engrossed copy, can you leave out the final Resolved? Thanks.)

KENNETH E. REEVES
ATTORNEY AT LAW
BULFINCH SQUARE
93 THORNDIKE STREET
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS 02141
(617) 225-2620

FAX NO.: 617-494-1745

Telecopy to:

Name:

Sandy Albano

Firm:

City Council

From:

Name:

REEVES / KASTNER

Date:

5/9/91

Number of pages (including this page)

Comments/Special instructions:

Not too many today.

City of Cambridge

16.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 13, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The people of Cambridge and their City Council support the goals of hospice care which are to help the terminally ill person live as fully as possible, and to provide relief from physical pain and emotional suffering; and

WHEREAS: Chilton House, a program of Hospice of Cambridge, at 65-67 Chilton Street, will be the first residential hospice in Massachusetts, providing an innovative and humane option for those people who can no longer remain at home, or no longer have a home; and

WHEREAS: Chilton House will offer a wide range of medical, psycho-social, and spiritual services to its five residents and will stand as a model to our community of thoughtful and sensitive treatment of the terminally ill; and

WHEREAS: On Wednesday, May 15, Visiting Nurse Affiliates of Cambridge is holding its 87th Annual Meeting and Capital Campaign Kick-off for Chilton House with honored guests Lieutenant Governor Paul Cellucci and State Representative Peter Vellucci, at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council express its great respect for the goals of the Chilton House Hospice and its confidence that Cambridge residents will view the presence of this vital service in our community as an opportunity to give their time and energy in a kind and gentle cause; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Chilton House on behalf of the entire City Council.

City Council MAY 13 1991

Adopted by the affirmative vote
of 9 members

Joseph E. Conerton
City Clerk

Order # 16

S-643

CONSENT

Vice Mayor Reeves resolutions on the
Chilton House.

In City Council,

May 13, 1991

Order adopted