Dear Margaret,

Could you please inform the City Council that the 9th Annual Holiday Procession through Harvard Square will start at 5:00 p.m. from Charles Square, instead of assembling at the corner of Mass. Avenue and Bow Street, on Friday, November 27, 1992? The route of the Holiday Procession has changed this year to include needy families from the Cambridge YMCA and YWCA who are invited to a party at the Charles Hotel that afternoon. After strolling with Santa through Harvard Square, the procession returns to the Charles Square Tree-Lighting Ceremony scheduled for 6:00 p.m.

This year's tree has been donated by the Massachusetts Dept. of Food and Agriculture, and we are inviting local carolers to perform at the ceremony. The new emphasis brings the first tree-lighting ceremony of the season home to Massachusetts again.

Please invite all the councillors who are in town on the day after Thanksgiving to come and take part in our Harvard Square Holiday Procession and Tree-Lighting at the Charles.

Sincerely yours,

Sally Alcorn
Executive Director
