IN CITY COUNCIL
 August 15, 1984

- WHEREAS: Leo J. Boyle of Lexington Avenue in Cambridge will be retiring on September 1, 1984 after 35 years with the Commonwealth Gas Company; and
- WHEREAS: Leo, upon his graduation from Rindge Tech in 1943, joined the armed forces and served in the Army Air Force in England; and
- WHEREAS: Leo, upon discharge from the Army, opted to use his mechanical skills for a job as a serviceman for the Gas Company; and
- WHEREAS: After receiving his Master Gas Fitter's License and being promoted to supervisor in 1964, Leo was educated in management at Rutgers University and in labor management at the Jules Justin School in New York City; and
- WHEREAS: Leo has always been the person to call for citizens of Cambridge, particularly the elderly, in need of gas service and has responded unselfishly at all hours of the night and weekend for those in need; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council do hereby congratulate Leo J. Boyle upon his retirement from the Commonwealth Gas Company, extend to him its sincere appreciation for the time and efforts he has given to the people of the City of Cambridge, and express our heartfelt best wishes for continued good health and happiness for Leo and his family in the years to come.
