WHEREAS: Twenty years ago, John Clifford bought the Green Street Grill at Charlie's Tap, a neighborhood bar in a working-class neighborhood in Central Square; and

WHEREAS: John Clifford's ideas were to bring jazz in and retain the neighborhood image of the Tap; and

WHEREAS: As the years and the Grill's successes came one after the other, the harmonies of the jazz musicians waned and the culinary delights took over. Not unexpected, considering the dishes that chef Mark Romano is constantly creating. The Green Street Grill has been home to local folks, artists, writers, students, politicians, and professionals. They have all met there for its atmosphere and to work, socialize and converse; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record extending its sincere thanks to John Clifford and the Green Street Grill for all that they have done for the residents, local folks, artists, writers, students, politicians, and professionals in insuring that Cambridge's aesthetic and culinary scene are cutting edge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council go on record proclaiming Tuesday, January 10, 2006 as John Clifford and the Green Street Grill Day in the City of Cambridge; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to John Clifford on behalf of the entire City Council.
