

Councillor Walter Sullivan

PROCLAMATION FOR YMCA WEEK

23
January 9 '89

WHEREAS the Young Men's Christian Association has been providing in valuable service to Cambridge for 105 years, and

WHEREAS, during that time, the YMCA has touched the lives of thousands of fellow citizens, young and old, men and women, families and singles, of all races and religions, and

WHEREAS, the YMCA is committed to developing the spirit, mind and body of the individual; to creating a sense of common, social purpose in the community; and to promoting basic, wholesome values for living, and

WHEREAS, the YMCA demonstrates those commitments through programs and services which offer opportunities to develop youth leadership skills, strengthen family life, adopt healthy lifestyles, build international understanding, make friends, go to camp, learn to swim, obtain new skills, volunteer in the community and play basketball and other sports, and

WHEREAS, despite the ever-changing nature of our world, the need for these kinds of programs and services remains as great today as it was when the first American YMCA was founded in Boston 137 years ago,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Cambridge City Council is pleased to proclaim January 22 through January 28, 1989 as YMCA week in Cambridge, asking fellow citizens to join in recognizing the Y for its many contributions to the quality of life in (Cambridge) and urging support for the YMCA so that it may continue to serve us for years to come.

City of Cambridge

COUNCILLOR WALTER J. SULLIVAN

23.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 9, 1989

- WHEREAS: The Young Men's Christian Association has been providing valuable service to Cambridge for 105 years; and
- WHEREAS: During that time, the YMCA has touched the lives of thousands of fellow citizens, young and old, men and women, families and singles, of all races and religions; and
- WHEREAS: The YMCA is committed to developing the spirit, mind and body of the individual; to creating a sense of common, social purpose in the community and to promoting basic, wholesome values for living; and
- WHEREAS: The YMCA demonstrates those commitments through programs and services which offer opportunities to develop youth leadership skills, strengthen family life, adopt healthy lifestyles, build international understanding, make friends, go to camp, learn to swim, obtain new skills, volunteer in the community and play basketball and other sports; and
- WHEREAS: Despite the ever-changing nature of our world, the need for these kinds of programs and services remains as great today as it was when the first American YMCA was founded in Boston 137 years ago; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council is pleased to proclaim January 22, through January 28, 1989 as YMCA Week in Cambridge, asking fellow citizens to join in recognizing the Y for its many contributions to the quality of life in Cambridge and urging support for the YMCA so that it may continue to serve us for years to come; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to the Board of Directors of the YMCA on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council January 9, 1989.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of 9 members.

Attest:- Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

Joseph E. Connarton, City Clerk.

Order #23

8-15

C.W.J. Sullivan re: resolutions proclaiming January 22-28, 1989 as YMCA Week in Cambridge.

In City Council,

January 9, 1989

1-9-89

Order Adopted