

MASSACHUSETTS
BAY
TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK

Ten Park Plaza, Boston, MA 02116
APR 8 11:40 AM '85
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

April 4, 1985

Mr. Richard A. Easler
Community Development Department
City of Cambridge
City Hall Annex
Inman Street and Broadway
Cambridge, MA. 02139

Dear Mr. Easler:

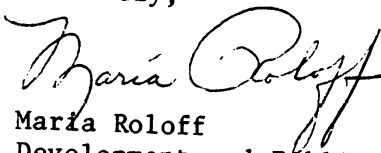

The MBTA's Station Name Review Committee is in receipt of the proposal to change the name of Cambridge Center/M.I.T. Station to "Kendall Square" (primary name), jointly submitted by the Cambridge City Council, the Cambridge Historical Commission and the Cambridge Transportation Forum.

The Committee has also received a proposal from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (M.I.T.) suggesting "Kendall" as a primary name and "M.I.T." as a secondary name for the station.

Please be advised that both proposals will be discussed at a public meeting to be held on Thursday, April 18, 7:00PM - 9:00PM at the Department of Transportation, Transportation Systems Center, Kendall Square, Cambridge.

If you require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at 722-5975.

Sincerely,

Maria Roloff
Development and Public Affairs
Station Name Review Committee

cc: C. Bahne
P. Healy
C. Sullivan

S' 254

Comm. from Maria Roloff, MBTA Station Name
Review Committee stating that the proposals for naming the MBTA station in Kendall Square will be discussed at a public meeting on Thursday, April 18, 1985 at 7:00 p.m. at the Dept. of Transportation, Transportation Systems Center in Kendall Sq.

In City Council,

April 8, 1985

Placed on File