

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

June 6, 1934

To the Honorable, the City Council

With reference to your order of May 29th that the Chief of Police refuse permission to the authorities of Harvard College to block off Mill Street during Class Day exercises because certain residents on Mill Street are deprived of their lawful rights to enter their homes, I have to advise you that there is but one resident on Mill Street; that she occupies a house owned by Harvard University; that she intends to vacate before Class Day; and furthermore that she has no objection to blocking off the street.

Yours respectfully,

Mayor
