

Cambridge, August 7, 1872.

To the Honorable, the City Council, of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned respectfully ~~prays~~ represents that the award made to him for land and damages to his buildings by the ~~widening~~ extension of Portland Street is $1184; that he has not sufficient land to move his buildings - and that a considerable part of one of them must be cut off - that he is unable and unwilling to take any legal measures to recover additional damages: - but he most respectfully prays that your Honorable Board will reconsider the award made him, and take such action as justice may require.
