Re: Lorraine Kennelly-Retirement

It is my very unhappy duty to inform you that Lorraine Kennelly, Administrative Assistant for the License Commission, has selected to retire on June 26, 1997. Would you please pass this along to the City Council for a resolution.

After 17 years of service to the City, Lorraine has decided to leave to enjoy her family and friends. She started out at the License Commission in 1980 on a 30 day emergency work order. Then Chairperson Mary Calnan needed a typist to type up licenses for renewals in December. Seventeen years later, Lorraine is still here and key to alcohol applications and renewals. Her system established from the start organized our office far beyond the past practices. We often joke that "Your 30 days is up!" you can go home now.

Lorraine is also known for her friendly and professional behavior particularly with licensees and attorneys. She demonstrates to us her concern for doing a good job and making sure that all the paper work is in order. Yet she is always willing to lend a sympathetic ear to a long time Cambridge restaurant owner and his or her problems and tries to make the process easier for them.

As she was my personal assistant for the past eleven years, I will be lost without Lorraine's knowledge and guidance and especially without her kind words and sympathetic ear. She was truly my "right arm".

We at the License Commission will miss her dearly and can only hope that Lorraine's well earned retirement is as rewarding to her and her family as she has been valuable to us, personally and professionally, for the past 17 years.
