IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor Walsh

April 23, 1990

- WHEREAS: In an expressed effort to try to prevent violence and promote understanding within the school community and beyond, a small group of seniors at Cambridge Rindge and Latin School have formed a group called SAVE, i.e., Students Against Violence and for Equality. The group has written what they call a Declaration of Interdependence which, in their judgment, expresses the common goals which bind and motivate the group. And
- WHEREAS: To listen and learn is as important as to speak and teach; now therefore be it
- ORDERED: That the City Manager contact the Acting Principal at CRLS and advise her that an invitation is extended to two or three of the prime movers of SAVE to come before this Council at one of its regularly scheduled sessions and share with us the proposed long and short range objectives of SAVE and suggest how they see this Council as being able to contribute to the prevention of violence which is so close at hand too much of the time; and be it further
- ORDERED: That the City Manager apprise this Council on the agreed upon date when the representatives of SAVE will speak to the Council.
