Captain Kevin Fitzgerald
Cambridge Rescue Squad
Fire Headquarters
491 Broadway
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Dear Captain Fitzgerald:

On Sunday afternoon, October 15, the Cambridge Rescue Squad was called to assist in extricating a ten-year old girl who had gotten stuck in a book lift in Baker Library. Your rescue detail arrived on the scene within a few minutes of our call for help and it played a decisive role in freeing the child without injury to her.

The coolness, professionalism and spirit of cooperation and helpfulness displayed by Lieutenant Walter Long and Privates Harry Ryan, William Hunter and Joseph Scalesse were a source of both great inspiration and personal satisfaction.

Please convey my, as well as the entire Business School Community's, warmest thanks and deepest appreciation to those personnel of the Rescue Squad who participated in this operation.

Sincerely,

Lawrence E. Fouraker
