Subject City Council Order No. 26 of October 25, 1982

Please be advised that the City Council has referred to your attention for a legal opinion the enclosed order as introduced by Councillor Graham at the Council meeting held on Monday, October 25, 1982. The subject of this order being the establishment of a policy by the Council which would give blue-collar workers preference in construction work being done throughout Cambridge.

Said order was charter righted by Councillor David Sullivan and thus, this question will appear on the City Council Calendar for the next meeting to be held by the Council, which is scheduled for Monday, November 1, 1982. However, the content of this order has been referred to your attention, with the request by the Council that you submit to them an opinion as to the constitutionality of said proposed order.

Your kind attention in this matter will be greatly appreciated both by the City Council and this office.
