VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: There is a growing recognition of the importance of community service as a way of providing each of us with a direct and tangible opportunity to contribute to the wellbeing of our neighbors and the community at large, as an activity that adds meaning to our lives, and as a vehicle for strengthening our sense of civic responsibility and citizenship in the community; and

WHEREAS: The scope and breadth of government and privately funded programs in Cambridge are inherently limited by funding constraints, and require supplementation by volunteer efforts targeting unmet needs in the areas of human services, education, environmental protection, and recreation; and

WHEREAS: Many Cambridge residents - young and old - already volunteer their time, and many others have expressed interest in doing so, but need guidance in finding a niche that accomodates their interests and talents; and

WHEREAS: Christopher Hall, a resident of Cambridge, with other-more-than-full-time work responsibilities, has generously contributed over one hundred forty hours of his time to researching and compiling a directory of community service opportunities in Cambridge, to be printed and distributed by the City's Department of Human Service Program; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City COuncil go on record offering this proclamation of thanks to Christopher Hall for his excellent research and editorial work, and overall dedication to the effort of compiling this directory; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Christopher Hall on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council October 3, 1994.
