

City of Cambridge

17.

IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor William H. Walsh

May 22, 1989

WHEREAS: In the manner with which we in Cambridge are accustomed to finding security in the presence of personnel of our Fire and Police Departments, President George Bush and French President Francois Mitterand experienced that same quiet professionalism on Sunday, May 21, 1989 as the military helicopters landed at and departed from Magazine Beach in Cambridge on their approach to and exit from Boston University's Commencement; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Council congratulates the personnel of the City Administration, especially the Chiefs of the Fire and Police Departments and their personnel for the contribution they made to insuring a safe, secure and memorable day for both Presidents; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare a duly engrossed copy of this Resolution for transmittal to the Chiefs of the Fire and Police Departments.
