Communication No. 13

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 8, 1982

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: The City Council, in writing and distributing the booklet, "Cambridge and Nuclear Weapons", has made a unique, a strong and a provocative statement to the citizens of Cambridge and citizens of the world, that the only defense is in nuclear disarmament for all nations; and
- WHEREAS: We have viewed in this chamber, as have hundreds across the city, the slide show about Cambridge and nuclear weapons, "A World in Our Hands", produced by the Cambridge Peace Education Project; and
- WHEREAS: In dedication to the cast of that slide show, people from around the block, down the street, or the other side of town in commemoration of all people of our city, our country, our world; we present a party for our city, a CELEBRATION OF LIFE; and we wish all to celebrate and to acknowledge the beauty, the uniqueness of life and to feel the excitement of preserving life and the call to work toward eventual nuclear disarmament; and
- WHEREAS: To this event will come citizens, public and private, workers and professionals, artists and athletes, and there will be music and food, celebrations and participation for a future, at this event scheduled for Sunday evening, April 25 at the Cambridge Rindge-Latin School; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record endorsing, supporting and encouraging this event, its concept and its outreach to all citizens of Cambridge; and that the City Council urges the support of this gathering by all citizens of Cambridge.
