IN CITY COUNCIL

January 27, 1992

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: February has been designated as Black History Month, a time to reflect on the heritage and history of African-Americans and celebrate their achievements and contributions, and

WHEREAS: When we learn about our own history and that of neighbors and friends, we can appreciate, respect, and understand the dreams and concerns that result; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge appreciates the diversity of its community and the participation of its citizens in making the City a strong, fair and caring community to live in; and

WHEREAS: A number of events and celebrations are being planned throughout the month to celebrate the cultural traditions and history of diverse people; and

WHEREAS: The MultiCultural Committee of the Department of Human Services is sponsoring the Third Annual Gospel Concert celebrating Black History on Friday, February 7th at the Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School and a Family Celebration on Thursday, February 20th at the Martin Luther King School; therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council urge all citizens to participate in these and the many other events and celebrations during Black History Month in appreciation of the contributions of African-Americans in history and in the present day in our community.

In City Council January 27, 1992.
