TO THE HONORABLE, THE CAMBRIDGE CITY COUNCIL:

I wish to commend you and thank you for your expenditure of $40,000 on improvements for the corner of Arrow and Mass. Ave.

It is my understanding that these are the improvements described last fall at a meeting of the group created by the 1986 Harvard Square zoning change. If so, it is a lovely improvement of which the city can be proud.

Sincerely,

Robert J. La Tremouille
