IN CITY COUNCIL

May 2, 1988

MAYOR VELLUCCI
VICE-MAYOR WOLF

- WHEREAS: Water itself is God-given, and the drinking water that flows dependably through our household taps results from the dedication of the men and women who operate the public water systems of collection, storage, treatment, testing and distribution that insures that drinking water is available, affordable, and of unquestionable quality; and
- WHEREAS: The advances in health effects research and water analysis and treatment technologies, in conjunction with the Safe Drinking Water Act Amendments of 1986 (Public Law 99-339), could create major changes in the production and distribution of drinking water; and
- WHEREAS: This substance, which the public uses with confidence in so many productive ways, is without a doubt the single most important product in the world and a significant issue of the future; and
- WHEREAS: The public expects high quality drinking water to always be there when needed; and
- WHEREAS: The public continues to increase its demand for drinking water of unquestionable quality; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do proclaim May 2, 1988 to May 8, 1988 as "NATIONAL DRINKING WATER WEEK", and urge the citizens of Cambridge to be aware of drinking water issues and public recognition of the difference that drinking water makes to the health, safety, and quality of the life we enjoy.

In City Council May 2, 1988.
