

City of Cambridge.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council of the City of Cambridge.

In the matter of the petition of Jewell Bent for the heirs of Jewell Bent deceased, representing that such heirs are owners in fee of $\frac{5}{100}$ parts of Broad Canal, and praying for damages caused by laying out a street over said canal - I respectfully report.

I find that at the time of laying out of the street named in the petition, the heirs of Jewell Bent were the owners of $\frac{5}{100}$ of the fee in said canal, subject to the easements therein as canal property -
