RICHARD C. ROSSI
Deputy City Manager

February 23, 1998

To The Honorable, The City Council:

Deputy City Manager Richard Rossi attended a meeting with representatives from the Tasty and the Cambridge Savings Bank on Thursday, February 12, 1998 and reports the following:

The Bank has indicated a firm commitment to the Tasty for 600 sq. ft. of ground floor space. At this time, their best guess is that the available space will be at the location of the old BankBoston entrance; the Tasty indicated that this would be satisfactory to them.

A firm written offer can't be made yet because the other building tenancy has not been determined; this other tenancy could impact the deal made between the Bank and the Tasty.

The Bank estimates that the issues with other tenants will be firmed up over the next two months and then negotiations with the Tasty will formally commence. The Bank once again indicated to Deputy City Manager Rossi that they intend to stand by its public commitment to keep the Tasty as a tenant in this building.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
City Manager
