Overview:

The Home Court Advantage ProgramSM is a three-year project to renovate inner-city basketball courts throughout New England.

Thirty-eight cities from across New England submitted more than 120 applications for review.

It is estimated that as many as 20 basketball courts will be refurbished through this program.

Bank of Boston and the Celtics have donated a quarter-million dollars to finance this program.

The Plexipave Playcote surfacing and materials have been provided by California Products.
