IN CITY COUNCIL

September 24, 1979

COUNCILLOR VELLUCCI

ORDERED: That Commissioner of Public Works Conrad Fagone and his employees be congratulated for the speed in which the streets of East Cambridge are being resurfaced and for the consideration shown the citizens and business people all during the installation of the new sewer system. Also that the entire Public Works Department be informed that I made a personal on the spot inspection of our streets' catch basins and I report that the sewer system was working well during the past tropical rain storm. Also that I did not receive one complaint from any of our East Cambridge citizens about street floods. For all that, I thank the City of Cambridge Public Works Department.
