

City of Cambridge

Councillors Sullivan & Crane

In City Council,
August 16, 1971.

WHEREAS:-

It was with profound sorrow that this City Council learned of the passing of Edward J. O'Connell on July 26, 1971 at the age of sixty-seven, and

WHEREAS:-

Edward J. O'Connell had served his native city in an outstanding manner as Secretary to the Cambridge School Committee for a period of thirty-six years during which time he served as a trusted adviser to the members of the School Committee in their deliberations, and

WHEREAS:-

Edward J. O'Connell in addition to his official duties as Secretary of the School Committee found time to advise and counsel all who came in contact with him and was instrumental in launching many prospective teachers to successful careers in the field of education, and

WHEREAS:-

Edward J. O'Connell will long be remembered for his cheerful manner and quiet diplomacy in resolving questions of procedure, and

WHEREAS:-

His passing will be sorely felt by the members of his family and his many friends and associates, therefore be it

RESOLVED:-

That the City Council of the City of Cambridge in regular session assembled on this sixteenth day of August does hereby express its sincere sympathy to his wife, Annabelle, and the members of his family in their bereavement, and be it further

RESOLVED:-

That a copy of this resolution be spread in full upon the minutes of this meeting and a copy suitably engrossed be presented to his family.
