The Committee on Roads and Bridges herewith

Reports

Recommending the adoption of the accompanying order of notice in reference to the laying out of Hews street, between Grigg street and Western avenue. An order for laying out this street was passed June 7, 1892, but owing to a typographical error in the order, which locates the street between Grigg street and Putnam avenue, instead of Western avenue, it is deemed necessary to begin proceedings over for the laying out of this street.
