Mayor's Challenge Softball Game

The Cambridge team put on a great effort but lost in the end to Somerville, 15-10, in the annual Mayor's Challenge Softball Game. Word has it that assistant city manager for fiscal affairs, Jimmy Maloney, was the one of the team's Most Valuable Players. Special thanks to all who came out to cheer the team on!

CLC Course Helps People Freshen Up Skill to go to College

Did you know the Cambridge Community Learning Center offers a Bridge Program for people who want to go to college but feel they lack the necessary skills and/or confidence to jump right into college courses? The 15-week free college preparation course offers a review of math and writing skills, study skills and instruction on using a computer for research and writing. Participants can also receive assistance with educational goals, college applications, and financial aid. The next class is scheduled to start on September 26. For more information, call Linda Huntington at x6366.
