1 AND 3 DOCK STREET, KENDALL SQUARE
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

April 16, 1926.

Your Honor, the Mayor, and City Council, Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Sirs:

In answer to your letter of April 3rd, I would like to purchase the land lying between my line and the rear of the Engine House on Dock Street.

It is about seventy feet deep by twenty six feet wide. There is no public way in the rear or side of this lot and light could only come from the front. Under these conditions, I feel that one dollar and fifteen cents ($1.15) per foot would be a fair price for the same. I therefore make this offer.

Very truly yours,

FWD/MGD
