WHEREAS: The arduous journey of our nation towards Independence and Freedom, the American Revolution, began on April 19, 1995 with the historic Battles of Lexington and Concord; and

WHEREAS: Throughout the years, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has continued to celebrate the anniversary of that now legendary "shot heard 'round the world" as PATRIOTS' DAY, a legal holiday; and

WHEREAS: Our own fair City of Cambridge, almost one hundred fifty years old at the start of the Revolution, contributed troops, munitions and rations to this young, inexperienced, yet loyal and tireless army; and

WHEREAS: This "shot heard 'round the world" changed the history, not only of our city, but our state, nation, and indeed the world, and provided the foundation for these United States of America; and now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby officially observe PATRIOTS' DAY on Monday, April 19, 1995, in commemoration of the Cantabrigians and first American who fought to guarantee us, their children, a free and democratic society; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby encourage all residents of this City to observe PATRIOTS' DAY on Monday, April 15, 1996, with all the reverence and ceremony that is fitting.
