

Cambridge, Massachusetts,
Office of the City Engineer.
City Hall.

May 16, 1930.

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge.

Gentlemen;-

Regarding the accompanying petition of the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Boston for permission to connect its property situated in the Town of Watertown and fronting on Belmont Street in the City of Cambridge with the common sewer in Belmont Street and belonging to the City of Cambridge;-

I recommend that this petition be granted on the condition that the said Cardinal first pay to the City Treasurer the sum of one hundred ninety-eight dollars and ninety-five cents ($198.95), the sewer assessment therefor at the established rate.

Very respectfully,

L. M. Hastings

City Engineer.
