Dear Mr. Person:

Please be advised that the Cambridge City Council at its meeting of November 23, 1981 has scheduled a public hearing relative to your petition requesting the placement of outdoor drop boxes at various locations in the City of Cambridge.

This hearing has been scheduled tentatively for Monday, December 7, 1981 at 7:00 p.m. in the City Council Chamber, City Hall. If you have any questions pursuant to this matter or find the scheduling of this hearing to be inconvenient, please contact this office at 498-9017.

Your kind cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Paul E. Healy, City Clerk.

Reference

Subject Placement of outdoor drop boxes by Federal
Express at various locations

Dear Mr. Healy:

The City Council at its meeting of November 23, 1981 has directed that I request from you an opinion as to the feasibility of charging the Federal Express Corporation for the placement of eleven of their "outdoor drop boxes" at various locations throughout the city, for the purpose of raising additional revenue for the City of Cambridge.

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the petition filed by Federal Express, which was on the motion of Mayor Duehay referred to your attention at the November 23rd meeting and a copy of the list of locations where they desire to place said drop boxes.

Your kind attention in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Paul E. Healy, City Clerk
