

5 May 1998

The Honorable Francis Duehay
Mayor of Cambridge
City Hall
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139

Dear Mayor Duehay:

As the Program Coordinator of The Literacy Project for adults sponsored by the Cambridge Public Library, I would personally like to invite you to join us for a very special event on Thursday evening, May 28, 1998 at 7:00 P.M. at the Central Square Branch Library.

At our eighth annual evening of recognition we will be honoring fifty volunteers and students who have been involved in our program this year. We hope that once again the Lewis Room will be filled to capacity by friends and family of those involved, as well as many other supporters of our program efforts. On behalf of the Library Administration and the Central Square Branch staff, I invite you to participate as you choose, and you are more than welcome to offer a greeting at the start of the evening, if you like. Susan Flannery, Library Director, will briefly address the audience and I will offer remarks about the history and importance of the program to our community. Students and tutors alike will be introduced and receive certificates. The formal program will be followed by a reception with light refreshments.

We hope that your schedule will permit you to attend for some of the evening, so that you may join us in thanking the volunteers and offering congratulations, encouragement, and inspiration to Cambridge residents who have, through their new association, improved their literacy skills and developed what we believe will be an enduring relationship with the public library. Please feel free to extend the invitation to the other City Councilors and members of School Committee.

You may reach me at 340-4013 if you have further questions.

Respectfully,

Mary Bonina
Program Coordinator
The Literacy Project
