Dear «greeting»:

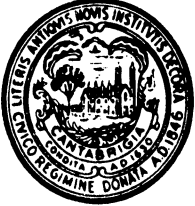

I want to let you know that your term on the «lineseven» Board has expired. In an effort to increase resident input and strengthen diversity on all the City's Boards and Commissions, I am requesting Board members with expired terms send letters of interest indicating their desire to continue serving. I will also be advertising and reaching out to residents who may want to participate as a board member. I will then review the pool of those willing to serve and appoint new members or reappoint current members with specific terms.

Thank you for your service to the City. I appreciate greatly your willingness to be an active participant in the life of the City. Your efforts have surely helped make Cambridge the fine community it is.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
