February 24, 1930.

To the Mayor and City Council
City of Cambridge
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

We were distinctly disappointed on Wednesday to learn that the committee had made no report to the Council in connection with our proposal to purchase land adjacent to our factory.

We now find it necessary to notify you that the delay has obliged us to reconstruct our expansion program and while we would like to have our offer for the land accepted we shall be obligated to build this year to a less extent than outlined in our letter of January 21st, 1930.

Yours very truly,
THE DAGGETT TRUST.

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

February 25, 1930

To the Honorable, the City Council

I transmit herewith communication from The Daggett Trust, by F. W. Daggett, Managing Trustee, dated February 24, 1930, in which he expresses disappointment at the failure of the committee of the city council to report in connection with his proposal to purchase land adjacent to their factory.

Respectfully,

Gentlemen:

At the urgent request of his Honor the Mayor,
we have decided to increase our bid for the Incinerator property to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) although we still believe our original bid of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) is all that the land is worth.

Yours very truly,
THE DAGGETT TRUST.
