IN CITY COUNCIL

May 16, 1977

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: Mobility for Americans is the keystone of an expanding economy and the American Transportation System is a network that brings world-wide envy; and
- WHEREAS: Today, our nation depends more than ever before on this vast network and related industries which literally keep the country moving; and
- WHEREAS: As the country continues to progress the transportation system will be continually called upon to meet new challenges and we are all confident that the transportation industry will rise to meet whatever challenges they may face; and
- WHEREAS: We are fortunate to have in Cambridge a principle facility of the U.S. Department of Transportation, the Transportation Systems Center which provides multi-modal research and development for air, highway, rail, pipeline and marine transportation; and
- WHEREAS: The week of May 15 through 21 has been declared National Transportation Week for 1977; and
- WHEREAS: The Transportation Systems Center is having an open house for the public, May 16-20 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. with numerous displays, models, vehicles and artwork by students of the Cambridge School System; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby declare May 15-20 Transportation Week in Cambridge and further urge all residents to participate in the observance of this week by visiting the Transportation Systems Center in Kendall Square.
