VICE MAYOR REEVES
MAYOR WOLF

WHEREAS: Lilith Imogene (Webster) Cragwell, a long time Cambridge resident, died on March 7, 1991, at the age of ninety; and

WHEREAS: Although Mrs. Cragwell was born in Jamaica, West Indies, she came to the United States at nineteen, and became an active member of the Berea Seventh Day Adventist Church in Roxbury, where she held numerous positions, was a member of the choir, and helped establish a scholarship fund; and

WHEREAS: Lilith Imogene Cragwell played a key role in the organization of the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Cambridge, which was established in 1979; and

WHEREAS: Mrs. Cragwell was a tireless organizer who worked for many causes and during World War II she served as a District Warden for Civil Defense, patrolling Cambridge streets during air raid drills; and

WHEREAS: She was the wife of the late Egbert Cragwell, the mother of LeRoy and Melbourne, and of Olivia Morse; the mother-in-law of Myrtle and Florine and James Morse; the grandmother of Melbourne, Jr., and Dr. Cheryl Cragwell of Sitka, Alaska, Kevin Cragwell of Durham, N.C., Pamela, Lisa, and James Morse, Jr., all of Cambridge, Sherine Morse of Atlanta, Georgia; the great-grandmother of Brian; the sister-in-law of Mildred Layne. She is also survived by many other relatives and friends, all of whom will miss her, now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council extend its deepest sympathies to the family and friends of Lilith Imogene Cragwell and offer this resolution in warm remembrance of this energetic woman who gave so much to her community; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to be sent to the Cambridge family of Mrs. Cragwell.
