

Remonstrance.

To the Honorable Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Cambridge.

Whereas a request has been made, and the Superintendent of streets has been ordered, to remove the Willow Tree standing on Bow St, on the sidewalk belonging to my estate, said tree having been set out by ^{my} late husband, and has been standing there for 25 or 30 years. It in no way interferes, either with public travel in the street, or on the sidewalk, and is on the line of other trees on the street, — Therefore the undersigned respectfully remonstrates against the removal of said tree.

Mrs Cynthia Russell.

In Board of Aldermen. Dec. 14. 1872.
