AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF ADDITIONAL COSTS

I, Richard D. Gilman, Attorney for the Plaintiff, under oath depose and say that the attached bills from the various constables were actually paid by me and that the people summoned actually testified during the course of trial; that in addition, photographs taken by Raymond B. Barnes were used in the case and were, in fact, Exhibits 3-27; and that additional sum of $30 was paid for the appearance of the photographer to authenticate said photographs used as exhibits during the course of the trial.

Wherefore, Counsel for the Plaintiff says that he had personally expended these monies for the purposes of the trial and that exhibits and witnesses were actually used in the course of the trial and payment was actually made by Counsel for the Plaintiff for which Counsel for the Plaintiff seeks reimbursement for his said costs.

Signed under the pains and penalties of perjury, this 30th day of September, 1975.

Richard D. Gilman
