I have received a properly engrossed copy of council order number 1, December 3, 1984, congratulating me and wishing me good fortune and prosperity in my new law office. I have taken great pleasure in framing this document and in placing it on my wall. It makes a very nice memento.

I thank the council for this very kind and very thoughtful gesture. I will cherish this memento and the concern and courtesy shown therein.

Thank you very kindly.

Sincerely,

Robert J. La Trémouille
