MAYOR REEVES
 VICE MAYOR CYR
 COUNCILLOR MYERS
 COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: Safe, livable neighborhoods are of great concern to residents of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: In recent months neighbors have complained about improper use of River Street by operators of heavy trucks between the prohibited time of 7:00 in the evening and 7:00 in the morning as established by city ordinance; and

WHEREAS: Such improper use not only is a nuisance of noise for residents, but heavy, six-wheeler trucks damage the street and private properties along River Street. The trucks shake the houses when they pass by these homes; and

WHEREAS: Unless decisive action is taken further deterioration of the roads will mean great costs to the city and its residents; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and is hereby requested to instruct the Police Department to strictly enforce ordinances which will protect River Street from improper use; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and is hereby requested to provide a plan that would equitably assist trucks to use alternative routes, if deemed feasible, that would protect River Street and its neighbors from abusive use.
