THE CAMBRIDGE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS CELEBRATES NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

May 22nd – May 26th, 2000

This Year's Theme: "Proud to Care"

*3/24 phone Reserve index
for May 26th 2000*

The Cambridge Department of Public Works will be celebrating National Public Works Week, Monday, May 22nd through Friday, May 26th, 2000. In celebration of this week, the Cambridge DPW will embark on an array of activities. The focal point for all activities will be the fifth annual traveling Cambridge DPW "road show", entitled: "Proud to Care". The DPW "road show" location and date for this year will be: Tuesday, May 23rd at Sennott Park in Area 4. The road show will be set up from 10:00 a.m. through 1:00 p.m. The show will feature displays of vehicles and equipment and tables from several DPW Divisions. There will be demonstrations of DPW work, such as tree pruning, park and field maintenance, and sign making. Also featured, will be table displays from several Cambridge Public Works Divisions such as Street Maintenance, Sewer Maintenance, Parks & Urban Forestry, Buildings, Recycling, Engineering, and Vehicle Maintenance.

The eighth annual Commissioners' Award Ceremony will highlight the week of Public Works activities. The purpose of the Commissioners' Award Ceremony is to formally recognize those DPW employees who have excelled in their work performance throughout FY2000. The Public, as well as other City Department employees, may nominate a Cambridge Public Works Employee for the award. Nomination forms can be picked up at the Cambridge Department of Public Works, 147 Hampshire Street; or the nomination can be e-mailed via the Cambridge Public Works National Public Works Week 2000 informational page at:

<http://www.ci.cambridge.ma.us/~TheWorks/apwaweek/cambdpw.html>.

Also please call Cambridge DPW Human Resources Manager, Ruth Mackiewicz, at 349-4834 if there are any questions relevant to this event or if you would like to nominate a DPW employee for the Commissioners' Award.
